

Royal Highland Show 2015 ALASTAIR GAULT - FORKINS

Alastair has been a Texel breeder for nearly 20 years. He first became interested in Texels whilst working with the Sweetwall flock at Loughanmore farms in 1995 and bought his first pedigree Texel in 1996.

Alastair now runs Forkins and Cherryvale flocks in County Antrim with help of son Jack. Together they work with 30 pedigree Texel ewes, along with 20 pedigree Suffolks and a small herd of Limousin cattle.

Some of Alastair's previous successes have included winning Interbreed Champion R.U.A.S Balmoral 2012, as well as winning all female classes R.U.A.S, Balmoral in 2014, including Champion and Reserve Champion. Highlight of the sales ring has been Forkins Rocksolid, sold at 65000gns in 2010.

Alastair has previously judged the Scottish Premier sale at Lanark, as well as the Northern Irish National sale at Ballymena.
